News from the Wheel-House

Hello Everybody,

God bless you all!

I would like to thank all the new volunteers that have come forward to help us here at St. Anthony’s. I especially would like to welcome our new members of the Finance Committee. Anna Piccardi is our New Chair person for our Finance Committee, Andrew Paci, Anthony Delvecchio, Robert Mara, John Tsios, John Bonugli, Santo Belmonte and George Anzuoni. We had our first meeting Tuesday July 30, 2019 and we are in pretty good shape because of your love and dedication to St. Anthony’s. We will have the annual results and 2020 budget in our September bulletin.

Mrs. Felzani and I have just finished the Faith Formation calendar for 2019-2020 grades 1 thru 8 and are still working out the calendar for Confirmation Year 1 & 11 we will keep you informed. We also had a dessert party on Wednesday evening August 7, 2019 with our Faith Formation Catechist. A big Thank you to Mrs. Felzani for all her hard work.

There are still some upcoming projects that we are addressing such as our Fire alarm system, a new outside door, two anterior doors these doors are old and have rotted away. Some windows in our bingo hall that stay open so when it rains the water comes in, and a few interior flour cent light fixture that we will to replace with LED florescent light fixtures as they need repair. Our Church is beautiful so we try to maintain the work so we can maintain its beauty.

Thank you. Yes I don’t hear the bell for macaroni and meatballs but the call to hold the wheel of St. Anthony’s

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Background on the Gospel Reading

Jesus' instructions on how to be ready for the coming judgment continue in the stories and sayings found in today's Gospel. We are not to be like the greedy rich man in last Sunday's Gospel who planned to store his great harvest in barns rather than share it. We are, rather, to share our wealth with those in need. The antidote for the anxiety brought on by the coming judgment is to relinquish our possessions and provide for the needs of others. Our treasure will be in heaven where it will not wear out or be destroyed.

The other major way to be ready for the coming judgment is to be watchful. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about watchfulness to begin making this point. We must be like servants waiting for the master's return from a wedding banquet, which, even now, can last for a few days in the Middle East. We must be watchful so that even if the master comes after midnight, we will be ready for him. This is what the coming of the Son of Man will be like.

Peter asks if this parable is meant for the apostles or for the large crowd that has gathered to listen to Jesus. Without answering Peter's question, Jesus responds with another parable about servants awaiting the return of their master. It begins with a question: "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time?" This parable adds to the theme of watchfulness; it explains how to wait and reminds us of the reward for the faithful follower at the heavenly banquet after the judgment. If it is addressed to the apostles, then it could also be addressed to leadership in the early Church. Either way, the parables reminds us that we should be found doing our jobs when the master arrives. If we are doing our jobs, our reward will be great. But if we relax, neglect our duties, and begin to act like the greedy rich man—eating, drinking, and making merry—we will not have a place in the kingdom. Watchfulness means living in such a consistently moral and obedient way that we are always ready to give an account to God of how we have lived.

STEWARDSHIP

In their Pastoral Letter on Stewardship, a Disciple's Response, the U.S. bishops state:

The Christian steward is one who receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes and tends them in a responsible and accountable manner, shares them in justice and love with others, and returns them with increase to the Lord.

Stewardship involves all of life

While pastors and others usually only speak of stewardship in terms of Time, Talent and Treasure, the truth is that stewardship involves all of life – body, mind and spirit, our material possessions, friendships, etc. All we are and have is a gift from our Creator for us to use wisely to build up God's kingdom here on earth.

Time

Time is a very precious gift. Most of us feel we don't have enough time for all the things we want to do. Everyone is given the same amount of time: 24 hours each day, 168 hours each week. The question is: How do we choose to use our time? Henry David Thoreau once said:

"It is not enough to be busy, so are ants.

The question is what are we busy about?"

Talent

All of us have been blessed with various talents, whether we are aware of it or not, or whether we have developed our talents or not. Of course, it is usually not possible to develop all of our talents. But, ideally, we can and should develop some of them and use them wisely to bless the communities we belong to.

Treasure

There are over 2,300 verses in the Bible about money, possessions and the right use of them. Why is this? Perhaps because God knows our propensity to misuse money or allow it to distract us from keeping our eyes on him.

Tithing. When it comes to financial support of our church family, the biblical ideal is a tithe—or 10%—of one's income. Our Catholic Church leaders suggest giving 5% to church and 5% to charity. Most Catholics who tithe reach this ideal gradually. In this area of stewardship, one of the most important steps to consider is to become an 'intentional giver'—as opposed to a 'loose change giver.' An intentional giver is one who has the willing diligence to 'do the math,' that is, to look at his/her annual income and then prayerfully and intentionally decide what percentage should be set aside for the support of the church and for charity.
