Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

Daniel 7:9–10,13–14

The prophet Daniel describes his vision of one like the Son of Man who received dominion from God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 97:1–2,5–6,9

A song of praise to God our King

Second Reading

2 Peter 1:16–19

Peter says that the voice heard from heaven confirmed the truth of his testimony about Christ.

Gospel Reading

Luke 9:28–36

Jesus is transfigured on the mountain in the presence of Peter, James, and John.

Background on the Gospel Reading

On August 6, our liturgy invites us to celebrate the feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. Our Gospel for this liturgy in Cycle C is the same as the Gospel proclaimed on the second Sunday of Lent. Recall that on the second Sunday of Lent in each Lectionary cycle the Gospel reading proclaims the story of Jesus' Transfiguration, each time from a different Gospel. This feast calls to our attention the importance of this event in Jesus' life, further affirmed by its report in each of the Synoptic Gospels: Matthew, Mark, and Luke.

In Cycle C, our Gospel for this day is taken from the Gospel of Luke. The context for Luke's Transfiguration story is similar to that found in both Matthew's and Mark's Gospel. The Transfiguration occurs after Peter's confession that Jesus is the Messiah and Jesus' prediction about his passion. In each of these Gospels, a discussion of the cost of discipleship follows the Transfiguration.

In each Gospel, Jesus takes three of his disciples—Peter, James, and John—to a high mountain. While they are there, Elijah and Moses appear with Jesus. In Matthew's and Mark's Gospel, there is reference to a conversation among Jesus, Elijah, and Moses, but only Luke's Gospel includes the detail that this conversation is about what Jesus will accomplish in Jerusalem.

Elijah and Moses are both significant figures in the history of Israel. Moses led the Israelites from slavery in Egypt and received from Yahweh the Ten Commandments. Appearing with Jesus at his Transfiguration, Moses represents the Law, which guides the lives of the Jewish people. Elijah is remembered as one of the most important prophets of Israel who helped the Israelites stay faithful to Yahweh. Some believe that Elijah's return would signal the coming of the Messiah for the Jewish people. This belief is evidenced in the question posed by Jesus' disciples after they have witnessed the Transfiguration. The appearance of these two important figures from Israel's history indicates Jesus' continuity with the Law and the prophets. They also reveal that Jesus is the fulfillment of all that was promised to the people of Israel.

Upon seeing Jesus with Elijah and Moses and having witnessed his Transfiguration, Peter offered to construct three tents for them. Luke's Gospel reports that Peter's offer was made in confusion. As if in reply to Peter's confusion, a voice from heaven spoke, affirming Jesus as God's Son and commanding the disciples to obey him. This voice from heaven recalls the voice that was heard at Jesus' baptism.

In his Transfiguration, we see an anticipation of the glory of Jesus' Resurrection. In each of the reports of the Transfiguration, Jesus instructed the disciples to keep secret what they had seen until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. The disciples' confusion continued as they wondered what Jesus meant by "rising from the dead." Until they also witness his passion and death, the disciples cannot possibly understand Jesus' Transfiguration. We, however, have the benefit of hindsight. In our hearing of it, we see in this event an anticipation of Jesus' Resurrection, a foreshadowing of Christ's glory in heaven, and the promise of our own resurrection.

News from the Wheel House

“Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a town and spend a year there and trade and make a profit”— yet you do not know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes”.

(James 4:13-14)

Dear parish family,

How are you? I hope you are staying cool and doing good. In this bulletin first of all I want to appreciate what you have done last weekend. I am really proud of you. Again, you have made me feel the greatness of your heart. Yes, last week at the church the air-condition was not working and it was hot yet bearing with the inconvenience you were so gracious and kind to take time to listen to the mission appeal of Sr. Gliceria Cruz belonging to the Queen of Heaven Missionaries from Philippines and offered your generous support by helping her to raise $2,725.00 through the second collection. I am certain that this money will help the victims of sex trafficking and this charity will bring you the rewards from the hands of God. Talking about this good work I am reminded of the call of this weekend's gospel.

This weekend August 7, 2022 we celebrate “The Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time”. The gospel of this Sunday calls us to be vigilant in waiting for the Lord keeping our lamps burning. These days we are all busied about taking most out of this summer, however I hear parents and children are making plans for the upcoming school year. As we are busied about different stuff, the readings of this weekend call us to check our spiritual journey and preparation to meet our Lord.

Now you may think, why bothering about it now? Here is a conversation between a spiritual mentor and a student: At the end of school what do you want to do? – I want to do my Senior Certificate. After your Senior Certificate what do you want to do? – I want to go to college. After college what do you want to do? – I want to get a job. Then what do you want to do? – I want to make big money. What do you want to do after making money? I want to build a big house. After that what do you intend to do? – I want to get married. What will you do after getting married? – I will have a family. What will you do after having a family? – I will retire. What do you want to do after you retire? – I want to take a rest. What will you do after taking a rest? – I don't know. Will you die?

– Oh yes, I will die too. In that conversation the student answering those questions had to be reminded that he would die. His main preoccupation was with all the things he would do during life.

He didn't seem to spare a thought for the fact that one day he will have to depart this life. We could say he was living for the present, with no thought about the present life disappearing. Many people would admit that they were so busy in the early part of their lives that they had not much time for God. They were busy building up their careers or busy with so many other things that their spiritual lives were not high in their list of priorities. But as time went by they began to realize more and more that life here is passing, that we are only passing through, and that the purpose of life is, as we learned in school, to know, love and serve God. That is why I have been noticing in my priestly life, many people become more prayerful and spiritual as they grow older. They can see that life is short and goes by very quickly.

This weekend's readings blow the whistle about the shortness of life and call us to engage more and more in good works – “keep our lamps burning waiting for the Master”. Let us get this wisdom and act on it without fail that we may not regret at the end that we have wasted away our life.

Save the Date: Last week on July 28, 2022 we had the parish council meeting. In that meeting the council has come up with a date for the celebration of St. Anthony's feast with the long awaiting party. Yes, it is true that we have been missing it for more than two years. But this year we are going to have it. The Special Mass and Party with DJ Allen Labella are going to be on Nov.5, 2022 (Saturday). Kindly save the date and I will give you more details about the big doing when we start selling the tickets for the party.

Reminder about the Book Fair: Coming weekend August 13th and 14th 2022, The Daughters of St. Paul from the Pauline Media Center in Dedham will be coming to our Parish to do a Book Fair after all the masses. The Sisters will offer Catholic Resources, Bibles, Prayerbooks, and many titles for Children. Plan to visit the Bookfair and choose something to enrich your Faith, deepen your spiritual journey and share the joy of the Gospel. Well, here goes the bell calling me to go and hold the Wheel. Before I go let me wish you all “Happy Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time” and assure you of my continual prayers for your well-being!

Your Administrator,
Fr. Xavier

FAITH FORMATION UPDATE

Can you believe that we are already a few days into August? My husband can't believe all the Back to School ads as he feels that the teachers and kids just got out!! It's not too late to find ways to enjoy the summer break!

Faith Formation Registration: All of our returning students should have received their letters and registration forms in the mail. Please return them as soon as possible as we want to make sure we have all the materials for our new program ordered and here before classes start. If you are interested in signing your child/children up for classes, please call the rectory and leave your name and phone number and I'd be happy to give you a call.

Faith Formation Office Hours: I will be at the Faith Formation Office on Saturday mornings from 9:00 until Noon on August 6, August 13 and August 27 if you would like to come by to drop off registration forms or fill out new student forms. Come by and say "hello."

At Mass registrations: On August 13, we will have registration information at the 4:00 Mass and on Sunday, at the 10:00 Mass. You'll have the opportunity to sign your child/children up.

Happy August Birthdays to Eliana, Lia and Nicholas C., Ava L., Rosely Z., Marisella D., Anthony D., James and Jimmy O., Alexa C., Albert G., and Jonathan M.

Feasts this week: August 8 St. Dominic, August 10 St. Lawrence and August 11, St. Clare

A 6 year old was overheard reciting the Lord's Prayer at Mass: "And forgive us our trash passes, as we forgive those that that passed trash against us." (Cute, right!)

You are in my prayers always,
Donna Felzani
