Pentecost

Reading I

Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were.

Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language.

They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans?"

Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

Responsorial Psalm

104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD, my God, you are great indeed!

How manifold are your works, O LORD!

the earth is full of your creatures.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

If you take away their breath, they perish

and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit, they are created,

and you renew the face of the earth.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever;

may the LORD be glad in his works!

Pleasing to him be my theme; I will be glad in the LORD.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Reading II

1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Alleluia

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Jn 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you.

As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Faith Formation Update

The Faith Formation Team would like to wish all of our parish family a very happy Memorial Day! Did you know that Memorial Day was once known as Decoration Day? Originally, Decoration Day was a day when families decorated the graves of fallen Civil War soldiers. During World War I, Memorial Day honored all those soldiers that had died in any American war. In 1971, Memorial Day became a national holiday. Today, many families make the holiday more meaningful by remembering all those family members that have passed away. Let us always treasure and remember those that have passed away, especially those we hold dear in our minds and hearts.

Confirmation Day was a day filled with faith and blessings for our newly confirmed, their sponsors, family members and our faith community. Let's remember to keep them in our continued prayers.

Our Faith Formation year for 2022-2023 has wrapped up for the year. Thank you so much to all our catechists, teachers, parents and especially our children. It is such an honor and a blessing for all of us to be on this faith journey with you.

Looking ahead to Fall 2023: All the children registered in our Faith Formation Program will be receiving letters with registration information in the mail in mid-August. If you would like to register your child/children for next year, you can leave your name and phone number at the rectory, and I will add you to our mailing list.

Please continue to come to Mass on the weekends and pray together as a family! When you are on vacation, find a place to attend Mass. Our family always loves to visit other parishes and churches while we are away!

Know that you are in my prayers!

News from the Wheel-House

“The test of the artist does not lie in the will with which he goes to work, but in the excellence of the work he produces”. - Thomas Aquinas

Dear parish family,

May the Spirit of God, who empowered the hearts and minds of the shaky, fearful and weak apostles, bless us that we may commit ourselves with steadfastness to the works of God for the advancement of His kingdom on earth! Last weekend was a busy one. The Memorial Mass for all the deceased members of our parish Holy Name Society went good and the Confirmation Mass was awesome. Our archdiocese North Region Episcopal Vicar Very Rev. Fr. Bryan McHugh did a great job of confirming the candidates with the gifts of the Holy Spirit. It was a happy and holy moment. And right after the 12 Noon Confirmation Mass I drove to Newark to get my flight to India. I could get there right on time. Though the flight from Newark was delayed for two hours, somehow I was able to get my connecting flight from Dubai to India and got home safe on Tuesday afternoon, for USA time it was Monday evening. Everything is fine with me now. Thank you for your prayers. Since this is a short visit, I have no time to waste. Right after a short rest that evening on Tuesday I drove and went to Tuticorin to visit my father's resting place, to see my bishop, priest friends and extended family. My bishop was so happy to see me. I gave him the money $ 4620.00 that we collected for the support of Indian Children. He asked me to give thanks and appreciation to all of you especially the goodness and generosity of our parish faith formation children. He also promised to keep all of our parish members in his prayers. I came back home on Thursday evening. Friday I took a pilgrimage to the shrine of our Lady of Vellankani, a shrine known for miracles. I did prayers for all of you. Other than the above stuff, things are going good with me. Kindly continue to pray for me and my family.

Transform from Being a Hesitant into a Hero: This weekend we celebrate “the Pentecost Sunday”. The readings of this weekend call us to move away from mediocracy and become committed Christians. The church is heralding to us to realize our mission responsibility through the liturgy and celebration of the Pentecost. Do you know, the feast of Pentecost is the official birth day of the Catholic Church? Yes, Pentecost is the day when the Church's sacraments are inaugurated, specifically the sacrament of baptism. Through the Church's sacraments, Christ communicates his Holy and sanctifying Spirit to the members of his Body. The Church fulfills her mission, with the help and assistance of the Holy Spirit. We know from the Bible that St. Peter wasted no time on this birthday of the Church and proceeded to baptize 3,000 individuals. This day and the readings of this weekend call us to get reminded of our baptismal promises and the Sacrament of Confirmation that we received and to embark of that beautiful mission of giving the gospel to the world following the footsteps of the apostles. Though the apostles were kind of weak and hesitant initially, they totally got changed after the great experience of the Pentecost and devoted themselves with passion to the mission even to the point of giving their lives. They transformed from being a hesitant into heroes. Let us get the inspiration from their lives and we ourselves allow the Holy Spirit to bless and guide us to do the same like the apostles and work for the advancement of the kingdom of God. You know our Savior Jesus value us and expected a good produce from us. God help us all.

Reminder: The tickets for St. Anthony's party are on sale. Kindly buy them and join us on June 10, 2023. I hope Fr. Heniston is holding the wheel and steering our St. Anthony's beautifully with your support and cooperation. I am looking forward to see you next weekend. I have my flight to Boston on May 31, 2023. Please continue to pray for me.

God bless you all.
Your Pastor,
Fr. Xavier
